EaseMyTrip Foundation and Jacqueline Fernandez-led YOLO Foundation Collaborate to Promote Animal Welfare

New Delhi, June 11, 2024: EaseMyTrip Foundation, a subsidiary of EaseMyTrip.com, one of India’s leading travel tech platforms, has collaborated with the YOLO Foundation, an initiative by renowned Bollywood actress Jacqueline Fernandez; to show its support and commitment towards animal welfare. The objective of this initiative is to ensure that sick and injured animals get timely and quality medical support and transportation. To support this cause, the foundations have donated 10 fully equipped animal ambulances.

Nishant Pitti, Founder of EaseMyTrip, mentioned, “EaseMyTrip Foundation has always believed in giving back to the community, and partnering with the YOLO Foundation to support animal welfare aligns perfectly with our values. We hope that these ambulances will make a significant difference and inspire others to contribute towards animal welfare.”

Expressing her enthusiasm and dedication to this initiative, Jacqueline Fernandez, Founder of the YOLO Foundation said, “We are incredibly proud to partner with EaseMyTrip.com in this noble endeavour. YOLO Foundation has always been dedicated to improving the lives of stray animals, and these ambulances will play a crucial role in that mission. Animals, just like humans, should get access to prompt medical attention. This initiative is a step towards creating a more humane and compassionate society where animals are treated with the respect and love they deserve.”

The collaboration reflects EaseMyTrip and Jacqueline Fernandez's commitment to improving the lives of stray animals. EaseMyTrip Foundation and YOLO jointly announced this initiative on their respective social media platforms, sparking viral engagement with a collective reach of nearly 24.4 million views.
