EaseMyTrip secures prestigious IATA GoGlobal accreditation to fuel international expansion

This global recognition paves the way for EaseMyTrip's enhanced presence across multiple geographies

New Delhi, November 12, 2024: EaseMyTrip.com, one of India's largest online travel tech platforms, has been awarded with IATA's esteemed GoGlobal accreditation. This certification not only validates that EaseMyTrip has met the rigorous global standards set by the International Air Transport Association (IATA) but also enables the company to expand its operations seamlessly across multiple countries.

The GoGlobal accreditation is highly regarded within the aviation sector and well-recognized by global airlines as a testament to the company's operational excellence and readiness for international growth.

This milestone marks EaseMyTrip's successful transition from IATA's GoStandard model to the GoGlobal accreditation, opening doors for simplified expansion into new international markets. The company's existing global network, which includes offices across several international locations, combined with this new accreditation, positions it strongly for accelerated international growth while setting it apart from other IATA-accredited companies in the country.

Mr. Rikant Pittie, Co-Founder of EaseMyTrip, said, "Achieving the GoGlobal accreditation is a landmark that unlocks new possibilities for our international expansion. It symbolises our growth beyond national borders and reinforces the trust that our partners and customers place in us. Partnering with IATA on this journey highlights the strength of our collaboration, and we look forward to expanding our presence across multiple geographies while continuing to deliver exceptional travel experiences on a global scale. Our international offices provide us the foundation to scale up rapidly, and we take immense pride in this achievement."

"We congratulate EaseMyTrip on achieving GoGlobal accreditation. IATA offers three levels of accreditation – GoLite, GoStandard and GoGlobal - to help travel agents connect more conveniently with a wide range of travel industry partners, streamline their business relationships with airlines, and boost their credibility with airlines and their customers. We look forward to working closely with the team at EaseMyTrip and supporting their plans to grow around the world," said Juan Antonio Rodriguez, IATA's Director for Financial Settlement Operations.

By securing this recognition, EaseMyTrip not only gains veritable credibility with global airlines but also strengthens its ability to expand its travel solutions across new international markets while adhering to world-class standards. EaseMyTrip has offices in the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, the UAE, the UK, the USA and New Zealand.
